

NEW JERSEY INSTITUTE OF LOCAL GOVERNMENT ATTORNEYS ("NJILGA" or the "Institute")

NJILGA is an organization of local government attorneys focused increasing the quality of representation for New Jersey local governments by acting as a resource for local government attorneys. NJILGA's members include attorneys who represent or have regularly represented local governments and local government agencies and boards, including municipalities, counties and their authorities, planning boards and zoning boards. NJILGA is an affiliate organization of the New Jersey State League of Municipalities (NJLM) and provides vital legal assistance to the League. Non-local government attorneys in good standing in New Jersey who are interested in local government law are also welcome to join the Institute. Non-attorneys are welcome to subscribe to the NJILGA Local Government Law Review.

Membership Benefits include:

- NJILGA Law Review – Distributed quarterly to all members and subscribers
- Legal Assistance Committee – experienced practitioners provide advice to members of the institute.
- Annual Convention Seminars – Annual two-day educational program at the NJLM Annual Conference in Atlantic City.
- Special Seminars and Programs – High quality educational opportunities sponsored or co-sponsored with NJLM, Rutgers, NJICLE and NJSBA.
- NJILGA Member Forum – Participate with other members in on-line discussions of local government law issues, including developments and cases impacting local governments.
- Diplomate in Local Government Law – A program of courses taught by experienced local government attorneys covering municipal procedure, land use, tort claims, public lands and buildings, municipal finance and labor law. Those who take the courses and pass the exam in each course are awarded the designation of Diplomate in Local Government Law. The courses, offered in cooperation with Rutgers Center for Government Services qualify for the CLE credits required of attorneys.
- Amicus Curiae Briefs – NJILGA works with NJLM to identify cases of importance to local governments that may benefit from Amicus Curiae participation. Interested members may assist in preparing Amicus Curiae briefs.
- Social Opportunities – NJILGA sponsors events including an annual baseball outing at one of the minor league parks and our annual social event in Atlantic City (free to member and guest).
- NJILGA Website – including access to members section: www.njilga.org.
